How to fill in a scorecard for a STABLEFORD competition

1. Write the name / number / type of competition .

2. Fill in the date & tee time.

4. Write in your name and your handicap in the relevant boxes.

5. You should then exchange cards with one of your playing partners, who should enter their name.

7. Once the round has started, record your score in the marker's column on the left hand side of the card. This allows you to check your own score at the end of the round. The score can be entered in two ways, depending on the space available, both acceptable. a). gross / nett / points OR b). gross / points.

8. Write the number of strokes your playing partner has taken in column 'A'. Their nett score (actual number of shots less any shots allowed for that hole) should be recorded in the right-hand column, (Nett Score). Record their points scored in the right-hand column.

9. After nine holes check the points score you have recorded for your playing partner to confirm it matches his figures in his 'markers' column. At the same time check your score with him.

10. When you have completed the game, add up the total of each half of the round, add these two figures together. Check the points scored with your playing partner, for both him and yourself.

11. Record the "PLAYER A's" total points scored in the box at the bottom left-hand corner of the scorecard, i.e. the player whom you are scoring for, not the markers score.

12. Once you are agreed that the score has been recorded correctly, you should sign as the marker, and hand the card back to your playing partner.

Marker's Signature	T. Nobody	Player's Signature	F. Bloggs

13. The player whose card you have been marking, should then sign the card, if they are happy with it.

14. If you are unsure how to calculate the points score, the minimum information you have to record is the gross score. It is helpful to those organising the competition if you can calculate the points score.

PLEASE NOTE: You will be disqualified from the competition if you do not sign and return your card, and as a minimum, you must record your gross score.
